ROUND TRIP

PORTUGAL ROUND TRIP

A popular Portuguese saying has it that Porto works, Braga prays, Coimbra studies and Lisbon plays. Portugal, a relatively small country, with its population of around 10 million, offers plenty of attractions and contrasts to discover. Every fan of diverse wildlife, nature, a lot of sun, winding roads, charming streets where people don't go often, and the merging of the modern and historical world will surely be delighted to visit Portugal. Its calm, friendly inhabitants, amazing landscapes and long, full of interesting events history attract millions of hungry for beauty and unforgettable experiences visitors every year. It is also right here, in the Douro Valley, where the oldest wine region in the world is located.

THE MAIN ATTRACTIONS

Description of the main attractions of the tour will be published soon.

TRIP FORMULA

This trip is an optimal combination of the amazing views, the curves, good asphalt roads and the flagship sightseeing points in Portugal. Without visiting them, nobody can say they have really been there!

During the trip, as always, we provide the highest level of service. The group will be led by our best guide who, apart from his motorcycle riding skills, has an amazing knowledge of the region and a fantastic contact with the participants. The participants will have a bus with luggage and service equipment at their disposal – it will ensure the comfort of traveling without the load. A quick assistance in the event of a breakdown will also be provided. The group will be able to admire the nature riding at their own pace without a fear of disconnecting from the rest of the team.

The architectural gems and all the attractions are just an addition to the incredibly winding asphalt roads designed for riding a motorcycle. The routes are personally checked, selected and designed by our team to ensure the maximum level of satisfaction of our participants.
